WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP

Ahalteke
horses

September 4-6 2026, The First Ahalteke World Championships in History Where Heritage Meets Excellence For the first time in history, the world's finest Ahalteke horses will gather on one international stage at Peelbergen Equestrian Centre for a landmark celebration of beauty, tradition, sport, and culture.

More than a championship — this event is a journey into the heart of Turkmen heritage, where the Ahalteke horse, known as the “Soul of the Turkmen People”, becomes the symbol of elegance, endurance, and timeless connection between horse and human.

Guests from around the world will experience an unforgettable atmosphere where elite equestrian competition meets authentic cultural discovery.
